THE DUKE OF 1974

The annual staff would like to express its appreciation to the Wellington Historical Museum for its generous contribution of historical material. A special thanks goes to Mr. Ernst Henes for his cooperation and help as well as assistance in identifying the pictures. We would also like to thank Mr. Kenneth Brouse, Mr. Russell Buck, Mr. Ralph Gray, Mrs. Fred Greetham Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Russell Griggs, Miss Mary Knapp, Mrs. Mary Mackin, and Mr. Franklyn Wright for their assistance in the identification. Their help was greatly appreciated.

The Original Wellington High School

Wellington High School 1974

In 1820, two years after the first settlers had come to Wellington, Miss Caroline Wilcox opened a school in the home of a neighbor. In 1849, the year the railroad entered the township, Miss Mary Ann Adams opened a school for higher education, which later became a part of the public school system. For several years there were three small school buildings situated in different parts of the town, but in the years 1867-69 the nucleus of the present Middle School building was erected at a cost of thirty thousand dollars, and a regular high school course was outlined. W.S. Ebersole, the first superintendent, rendered excellent service in putting the infant system upon its feet. In 1918 the schools were centralized, and a new building was erected in front of the old one.

1974 is the 100th year for Commencement exercises at Wellington High School. Today the building and location are different, but the overall atmosphere is something of which to be proud, just as it was 100 years ago. In the following pages are pictorial memories of the past and the present at Wellington High School. By comparing them, one can see that we have certainly come a long way . . .

WELLINGTON ALMA MATER

Staunch among the towering trees,
Stands our Alma Mater fair.
Days of priceless worth are these,
None in memory compare.
With hearts to dare, high hopes to win,
Life for us must soon begin,
Not as slaves but glad and free.
Wellington, all hail to thee.

Dedication

Douglas Mark Moody

And when we think of him it's not how he died that we remember, but rather how he lived how he did live.

In Doug the Class of 1974 had one of its most outstanding members. As our junior class president and a member of National Honor Society, Doug truly showed his leadership ability and likable personality.

Although he has been taken from us, the memory of our times spent with him will remain in our hearts forever.

To Douglas M. Moody we dedicate this yearbook.

THE 1974 CLASS PROPHECY

The year is 1994. Mark Williams is sampling the newest ice cream flavor, Rah' Rah' Ravioli, at Jan's Drappy-dip Dairy Delight, a Wellington drive-in. As he goes up to the counter for seconds, he recognizes one of his old WHS classmates, Janet Carpenter, who is now owner of the drive-in. After getting reacquainted Janet says, "Hey, Mark, I read your recent article in Sports Illustrated called "Why People Streak." I'm glad to see you're such a success."

Mark chuckles. "Thanks, Jan. By the way, what has the rest of the old gang of '74 been up to?" I haven't been in Wellington for twenty years."

Janet replies, "Well, Mark, let's see. John "Mayo" Wood now heads the local newspaper entitled the "Ex-prise." Mary Lou Sutz is his assistant editor, and Melanie Stone has a gossip column called "Me, Te, Is It All." Gary Carsey is the "on the spot" photographer for them. Liz Rittenhouse has become manager of the Rexall Drug Store while Jayne Trippett is president of FTD Florists Ltd. Bill Moyers and Dave "Hero" Brosius have combined to form the nation's largest grocery store chain called "Dorfinsky's." Janet Fink and Sandy Yoder have started a massage parlor explicitly for members of the United States Coast Guard.

In the line of education, Diana "Ma" Gallentine is now the high school home economics teacher and head of the burned buns department. She is assisted by Char Oney, Bridget Farnsworth, and Debbie "Bozo" Roscler, who are in charge of licking the bowls.

Debbie Kammer is now the high school's art teacher, specializing in finger painting. She is frequently visited by Vicki "Rhoda" Ferriman, the ski instructor and human snowball. Laura George is now the head librarian at the high school. Debbie Wyckoff, Betty Adams, and Phyllis Wallace keep the books from collecting dust. John Klassen is now the superintendent of the LCJVS. Cindy Gottschling, Bev Jones, and Karen Smith serve as his faithful secretaries.

Our class also has fine athletes who have gone far. Edwen "Frog" Belza and Teresa Edwards are Olympic track stars while Mary Baker, Pam Krieg, and Criss Wilson are pro basketball players for a woman's NBA team. Becky Durham and Elaine Fahler keep statistics for them. Some of the girls who are in the tennis world are Becky Barbor, Kim Varner, and "Babe" Sue King, who will be competing in the next Wimbledon Tennis Tournament. In men's pro basketball we have the fantastic team of Tim Lloyd, Rodney "Pete" Farnsworth, and Sam Roberts, who are all starters for the Mongolian Mashers. Carl Kolb and Leo Evans have become famous Olympic wrestlers in their weight classes, while Tom Mannich, Walter Boardwine, Mike "Flash" Fahler, and Mike Farnsworth have gone professional as bowlers, on "Bowling for Money." In pro football Richard "Rabbit" Jones has just hopped to a two-thousand yard rushing season behind the fine blocking of Bill "Brad" Harbaugh and Artie Sword. All of them hold contracts with the "Honolulu Hunchbacks."

In the world of professional auto racing, Don Goetz and Rick Kimbler have both finished "in the money" this year. Dan Lerby is the boss of their pit crews. Their super cars were designed by Gerald Doty and Ken Dalton and assembled to perfection by Rick Given and Kevin Knapp. The national motocross motorcycle races were won this year by Doug Wilgor and Neal Ward.

"Daring" Delmer Birchfield, Mike "Eightball" Ortiz, Kim "Cueball" Parker, and Tom "Scratch" Sexton are all pro-pool hustlers, specializing in rotation and eight-ball.

In the world of entertainment, Kathy Brennan, Jeff Comeau, and Jon Ogle are main attractions in the clown acts at Ding-a-ling Brothers' Circus. Mike Hartmann and Steve Guntar are now starring in their academy award winning flick called Hitler Meets Uncle Tom. Steve Leimbach, Roger Rutherford, and Steve Conklin are co-owners of Hugh's Playboy Club in Vegas. At last report they had hired Lillian Magyar, Cindy Burnett, and JoAnn Tite as their head waitresses.

Doug Montoney and Beth Johnson have just opened a new night club where chief parking lot attendant Steve Hawley mathematically calculates where each car should be parked. Al Pasadyn, Gary Jameyson, and Rick Naylor provide music for their guests.

Linda Bottomlee and Beth Ann Turner have opened their own beauty salon in Hollywood. They do hair and make-up for some of our more famous classmates such as Mike "Crash" Weir, a famous stunt car driver who just broke the world's record for jumping 23 telephone poles, and Toni Grassinger, owner of the famous "Peperoni Palace," a luxurious pizza establishment on the Strip.

Frank Horvath has taken his place in the fashion world by designing styles of tennis shoes for Vogue. Two of his more popular shoes include platform and sequinned tennies, which are worn by top models Jody Brubaker, Anne Welsh, and Linda McHenry.

Carolyn Cloyd, Lynn Hirzel, Mary Bealer, and Barb Bartoto are kept very busy as stock brokers in New York City. Meanwhile, Mike Puskas, Kathy Bowman, Darlene Puckett, and Nancy Allison have taken over the IBM centers across the country.

Patty Schroyer, Jeani Porter, Debbie Jordan, DeLonna Phillips, and Debbie Neff are all housewives involved with the efficient running of a household.

Leslie Jones is now head nurse at downtown Wellington's evergrowing and expanding 18-story hospital. Serving on her staff are Karen Gale, Debbie Baughman, Sandy Joppeck, and Debbie Jackson.

Doris McManus is president of the EST bank here in town with Donna Crites, Merry Hemphill, Melissa Markel, and Lorna Mull as tellers. Debbie Kimbler and Jennie Nau are commerical drafting supervisors, specializing in the high rise apartment buildings.

Many members of our class have excelled in agricultural professions. Dave Rice, Bob Storrow, Ron Hassa, Kim Hopewell, and Mark Diedrick now are co-owners of the largest agricultural center in the Midwest. They employ mechanics Frank Storrow, Richard Bartoto, and John Conrad to keep the operations running smoothly. Dave Reep and Ray Steffanus help them out in the electrical part of the business while Karoline Grant handles the finances.

Cindy Sharp and Sheila Goss own horse ranches in Colorado. Tari Brandt owns a cattle ranch in Montana, while back in Ohio, Diane Couch has come up with a method to get cows to produce chocolate milk.

Patti Miller and Debbie Sharp are current owners of the nationwide Ben Franklin stores while Mike Rucker and Paul Milligan have started their own clothing stores for men.

Eugene Towkatsch is an opthomologist with Sue Matcham and Debbie Turner as his assistants."

"Gosh, Janet, it's nice to know that our class is doing so well in the big wide world. I'm glad I found out how our classmates have continued to achieve success."

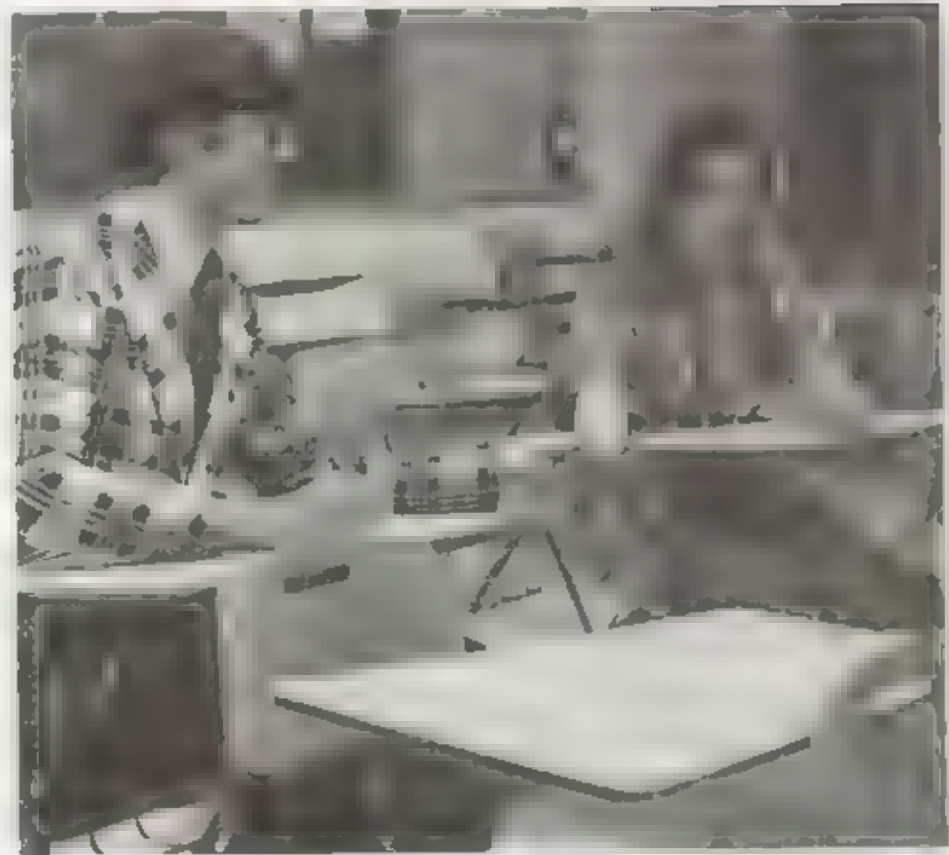

"Well, listen Mark, let me treat you to another dip of ice cream. We've got 74 flavors, you know."

-Mark Williams and Company

The 1973 Dukes showed class and character when they won their last three games to post a winning record. With five wins, four losses, and a tie, they were the first Duke gridders to finish on the plus side in the past six years.

The record does not tell the complete story, however, as they played several outstanding games. Highlights of the season included a 28-13 victory over a strong Midview eleven, a 26-6 thumping of Amherst—the eventual Lakeland Champions—and a thorough 56-6 rout of arch-rival New London. In all, the Dukes put 240 points on the scoreboard, more than any other Wellington team had in the past 27 years.

The seven seniors who will be graduated will be sorely missed next fall. They formed a tough nucleus for this team and provided inspiration and leadership as well. These young men proved that dedication, determination, and hard work really do pay off.

The freshman football team completed its season with a disappointing 1-6 record. Injuries and lack of players handicapped the team all year. The young Dukes started with only nine players and finished with seventeen. Competition is too tough in the Lakeland Conference to net winning results under these conditions. Guy Neal, Dave King, and Lary Jameyson were selected by the team as tri-captains.

Although the team has definitely improved, the season ended with a disappointing 4-16 record. The highlights of the year were the 55-53 victory over Amherst and the 65-1 tournament victory over Columbia, the first tournament victory since 1971. The experience gained throughout the year will be a positive factor for next year's team.

The track team finished 2-5 overall for meets and was second in the South Amherst Relays and third in the Lake and Conference meet. There were fine individual performances in the sectional and district meets.

Individuals who performed well during the season were Ron Adkins in the 440 and mile relay, Ed Belza in the 100 and long jump at the conference meet, Tim Burns in high and low hurdles and 880 relay, Joe Storrow in the sprints, Mark Kepler in the pole vault, Rick Horvath in the sprints, Jerry Logan in the 440 and mile relay, Don Gibbins in the mile relay, Fred Buchanan in the shot put, and Lary Hurlbut in the pole vault. Ed Belza won the most valuable runner award. A special congratulations goes to Mark Kepler, who placed second in the AA State track meet.

Next year should be an excellent one for the Dukers with everyone except Edwen Belza returning.

DUKE BAND

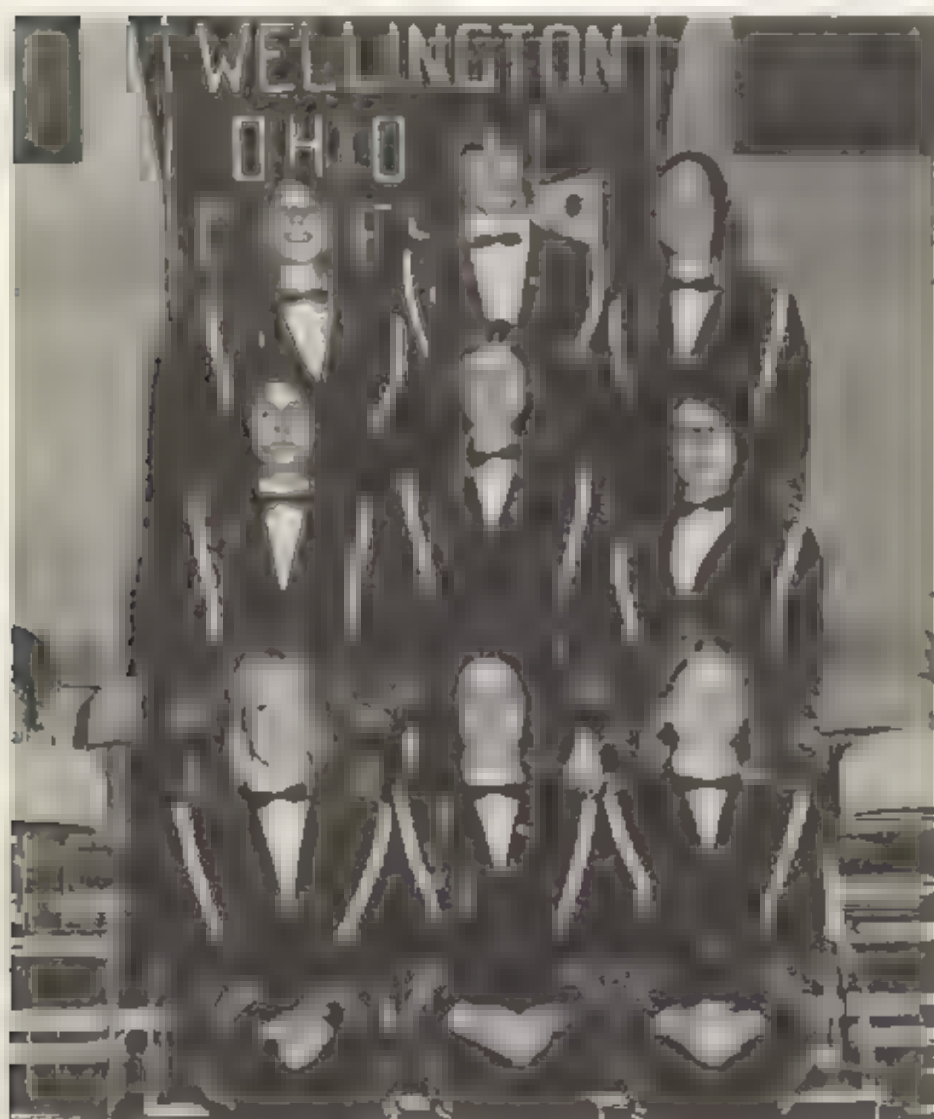

For our "Duke" bandmen the 73-74 school year will be remembered as the year that our marching band received a 1 (Superior) rating at the Ohio State Fair Marching Band Festival and a 4th place rating at the Lexington "Band of Gold" Invitational. Also, during this past school year, a formal concert shell and a new set of band risers were purchased through the combined efforts of the band members, band boosters, Mr. Alson, and the school board. This year the John Philip Sousa Award went to Anne Welsh.

Officers for the band this year included Juayne Triplett, president, Steve Leimbach, vice-president, Anne Welsh, secretary; and Debbie Roseler, treasurer.

The 1973-74 year proved to be very exciting for the Wellington Future Homemakers of America. The chapter received the highest possible award of recognition, the Award of Merit, and fully met the standards of excellence by receiving the Star Chapter award. The theme, "Make Others Happy—A Smile is the Best Reward," was carried out by various activities such as Family Smorgasbord, Adopt a Grandparent, Daddy Date Night, and the Murray Ridge Project. Other programs included lectures on birth defects, cancer, and Children's Hospital in Columbus. Wellington hosted the Sub-Regional F.H.A. Meeting with an attendance of 400, including the special guest, Miss Ohio. Thirty members attended the State F.H.A. Convention and participated in many activities. Extra recognition was given when Heather Horvath received the art award at state convention.

In order for a student to be invited to the Honor Banquet, he must have at least one of three requisites: be on the Honor Roll a minimum of two out of three grading periods; be a member of National Honor Society, or take the State Scholarship Test in an offered subject.

The awards given are as follows: first year award, certificate; second year award, "W" Honor letter; third year award, pin; and fourth year award, loving cup.

ROYALTY

Dora Young

Kina Varner became the 1973 Homecoming Queen on October 12th during pre-game festivities. She was crowned by the previous queen, Kathy Smith, and then presented with flowers and the game ball. The traditional kiss was given by her escort, Tim Lloyd. A hard fought game ended in disappointment with the score of Wellington 12, Brookside 13.

Attendant Janet Carpenter escorted by Ed Pelza

Attendant Diane Coughlin with her escort, Frank Horvath

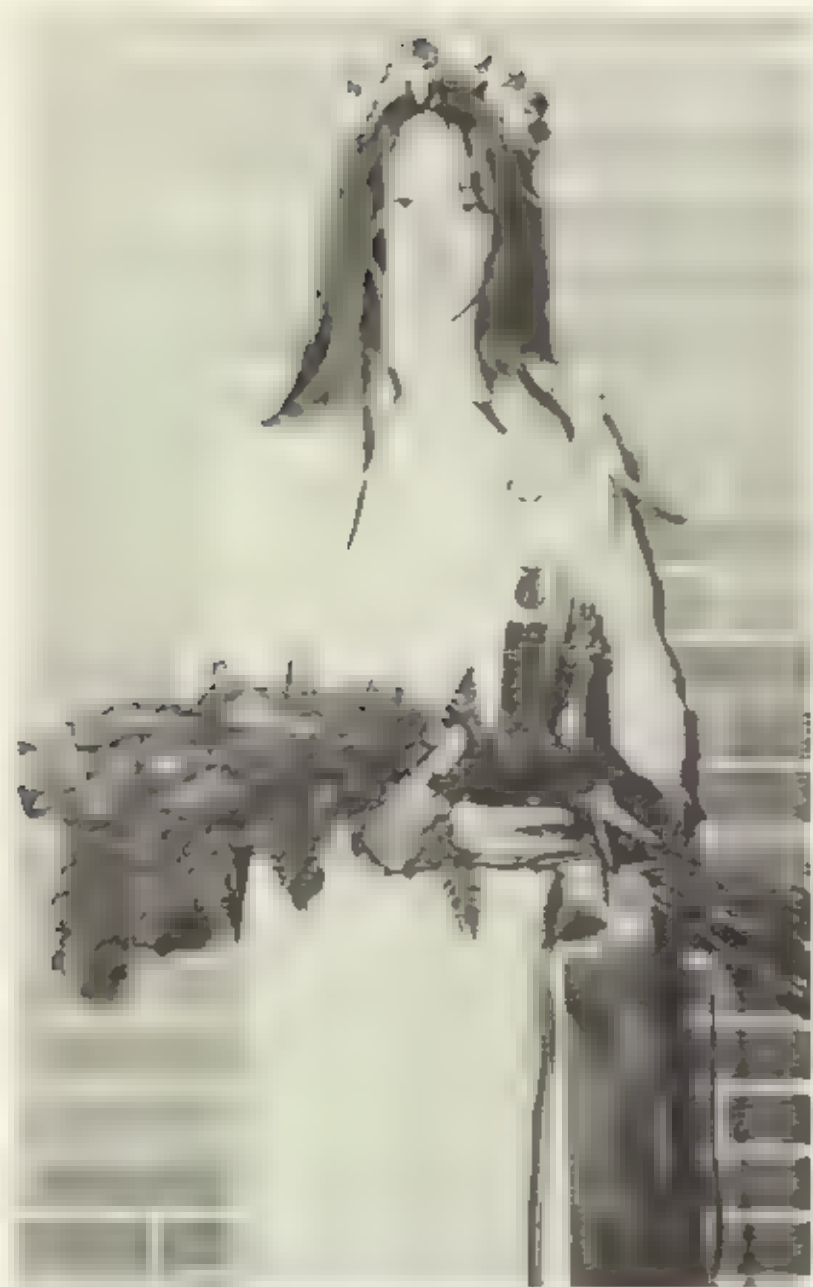

Attendant Vicki Ferriman and her escort, Mike Hannan

Attendant Cress Williams escorted by Ronald Jones

"Cream of the Crop."

The annual F.F.A. parent-member banquet was held on April 25, 1974. The title of 1974 F.F.A. Queen was given to Sue Brasee, whose attendants were Debbie Rice, Bonnie Zacharias, and Kathy Seeley. The chapter members were given their annual awards at this successful banquet.

Last year's queen, Dare Cook, crowns Queen Sue Brasee as court. Tom Storrow looks on.

Attendant Debbie Rice being escorted by Tom Storrow.

Attendant Bonnie Zacharias escorted by Charles Pickworth.

Attendant Kathy Seeley and her escort Russell Breyley

Freshman attendant Laurie Burton escorted by David King

Steve Harris escorting Sophomore attendant Michele McMahon

Junior attendant Dana Browand being escorted by Jeff Wigor

Myron T. Herrick

Famous Wellington citizen who later became U.S. Ambassador to France

We hope that the old as well as new pictures in the preceding pages have brought back pleasant memories. 1975 will be the beginning of another century of graduating classes at Wellington High School, and hopefully it will be as rewarding as the first 100 years.

Golden years are passing by,
Happy, happy golden years,
Passing on the wings of time,
These happy golden years.
Call them back as they go by,
Sweet their memories are,
Oh, improve them as they fly,
These happy golden years.
—Will L. Thompson, 1879
